

MISS NINA COLEMAN LEEDY, daughter of Colonel Leedy, who received her degree as bachelor of music at the Woman's College on Thursday night.

SOCIETY

THE charm of real Virginia, the Virginia of our grandmothers, has been brought back to this generation by the revival of country homes, where historic hospitality is dispensed, and each place has its old-fashioned gardens, filled with wonderfully sweet-smelling flowers, and quaint sun dial, rose walks that breathe of another time and other ladies fair, and stables filled with famous horses for the hunts. We seem to catch again the spirit and rare spell of the days of earlier Virginia, when men lived and were happy in the contentment of a Southern plantation. Many old places have been restored, others have been put up in close imitation of the colonial age and the times "before the war," the golden age of our Southern history.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Scott will leave with their children about the last of June to spend the summer and early fall at their country home, "Royal Orchard," in Albemarle county. Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Conquest and family have moved to their home on the Hermitage Road. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Chevington and children will leave on Monday for their place in Louisa county. Mrs. Hobson and her daughters will go to their summer home in Goodland county in a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beverly will open their home in Fauquier about the middle of July.

And in all these homes many fascinating house parties and week-end visits are being planned, for it is no longer "the fashion" to go to the springs, but much more does society seek the rare and charm of a friendly place in the foothills of Virginia, where a Virginia gentleman and "his lady" grace an ancestral home.

Umbarger-Burnett.—Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Burnett have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Esther Burnett, to Willard Everett Umbarger, on Wednesday, June 14, at 4 o'clock, at "Maple Shade," Cambria, Va. Mr. and Mrs. Umbarger will be at home after July 1 at Chilhowie, Va.

Lawn Fete to Be Given.—An attractive social gathering is being planned for Thursday, June 8, when a lawn fete will be given at the residence of Mrs. Edwin Sampson, on Seminary Avenue, Clinter Park. The yard will be decorated in fascinating flower booths; there will be a floral parade, in which the children will take part with their pony carts, and a little folk and hand organ will help the little folks to make merry. A string orchestra, small tables, flowers and lanterns will make things attractive for the older people, who are expected between 5 and 10 o'clock that evening.

McLelland-Stout.—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stout have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Mary Alice, to Edward Lee McLelland, the wedding to take place at their residence, 1305 West Main Street, Tuesday, June 6, at 6:15 o'clock in the evening.
